INTEGRITY TO DECEIT: Proverbs 5:21

Proverbs 5:21, For a man's ways are in full view of the Lord, and He examines all his paths.

Solomon's lectures are not designed to fill our heads with notions, with matters of nice speculation, or doubtful disputation (morality or goodness), but to guide us in the government of ourselves, that we may act prudently, so as becomes us and so as will be for our true interest. – Henry

Honesty, trustworthiness, and diligence lead to integrity. All three of these factors, when exercised by Christians, will make them stronger. The path our Father has planned for us will lead to integrity. They are impossible to maintain outside of an ongoing relationship with the Spirit of God. Psalm 119:105 explains: Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path. The gateway to spiritual direction is through God's Word.

We must remember, The wages of sin result in death, but the gift of God is eternal life (Romans 6:23). We who have believed are instructed to follow God's teaching (Psalm 119:11). In Proverbs 5, Solomon emphasizes the application of wisdom to the life of the children of God. The importance of knowledge and understanding has been clearly explained in Proverbs 1-4. Now He encourages us to implement these teaching into our lives. We will only have success resisting sin when we apply scripture to our walk (Psalm 1).
