Matthew 25:14, To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability...

Summer is quickly approaching and so are all the events we planned for it. It is a great time to engage our communities with a gospel presence. For some it is an “all-hands-on-deck” mentality, others are focused on the logistical side of things, and still others are worried if they will go over budget. As we enter this season of VBS, Movie Night’s, Park Days, etc., let us pause and reflect on the passage above.

In the past the focus on The Parable of the Talents has been at the end of the parable. The lesson most of us take has been, we are called and encouraged to put our “talents” to work. However, I would like to focus on the middle of the verse where we read, “each according to his own ability”. Each individual was given according to their ability and all that was expected of them was to match their ability. We all shook our heads when we found out that the one with one talent couldn’t even do what he was expected to do. Again, according to his own ability. In other words he had it in him to duplicate what was given to him, but he just didn’t live up to it.

However, there may be a few of us that swing the other way. Just like in the parable we are given a certain number of “talents”, but we work it as if we have more. To the one that has two they work as if they have four. The church or individual that has one, believes they can stretch it to three. Let us work and serve at our means and be faithful to that. Let us not try to overdo, but trust that the Lord will do the multiplication. If we can be faithful to two when we are given only two, the Lord will duplicate and allow us to serve with four when the time comes. As scripture says later ‘Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter the joy of your master.’

YOU WILL BE MY WITNESSES

And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever (1 John 2:17).

It benefits us to live as God has commanded us. Practice love. When we care for others, Our love for God will drive us to be witnesses for Him. To be obedient to His calling, we need to spread the words of hope and eternal life in Jesus. When we understand the penalty for unrighteousness in its true light, love will spur us to share the gospel message despite the personal cost. Everyone has a right to know, everyone (Acts 1:8).

JUAN SANTOS
LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Dios está obrando en gran manera y un gran avivamiento está sucediendo en nuestra asociación. Juntos estamos preparando líderes y alcanzando a los Hispanos de todas partes que han venido a vivir en nuestro condado. Con su participación y colaboración podemos lograr plantar muchas iglesias saludables. Sigamos unidos bajo una misma visión de alcanzar a nuestro condado para Cristo. Les animo a ser parte de la gran bendición de plantar más congregaciones que hablan español. Pastor Jonathan y yo estamos para apoyarles.
